Quilter's Emporium's 2012 Quilting

Cruise!!

Join Rose Ann Cook, owner of Quilter's Emporium of Texas, as she welcomes you aboard Carnival's newest cruise ship, the Magic for their 10th quilting cruise! Quilter's Emporium is the FIRST quilt shop to utilize the historic port of Galveston for quilting cruises. Know from the start, that your vacation is managed by professionals that have your best interests at heart. Enjoy an ever changing slate of gifted teachers and special events on each cruise.

The "Swirly Girls", Susan Emery and Christine Van Buskirk, will share some fun and quick projects using their own bright and cheerful fabrics from Michael Miller.

Lisa Bongean, owner of Primitive Gatherings and wool applique aficionado, will teach you how to use beautiful wools in applique projects. Wool applique is extremely easy and forgiving. The end results are amazing!

Thread Artist, Shelli Ricci, joins us again from a previous cruise. Her students loved her classes and the creative and fun methods she teaches in embellishing your quilts, fabric postcards and more. Her creative spirit will help encourage you to break out of your quilting shell!
